Glossary of United Methodist Women Terms

So, that's what it means....

- Action Alerts – Notices that keep interested individuals informed about important legislation and policies regarding issues of particular concern for United Methodist Women. Sign up to receive Action Alerts at www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/act/alerts.
- A Call to Prayer and Self Denial – Annual observance which gives local units a chance to study and reflect on a particular theme each year and designate funds for ministries related to that theme.
- Charge or Cluster Group – A United Methodist Women group formed by women from more than one church when the number of women from a single church is too small to organize with a basic structure.
- Charter for Racial Justice – Based on our belief that all people are created by God and are part of God's family and that each person's value deserves respect and nurture, United Methodist Women are committed to the elimination of institutional racism of all kinds and supports and participates in the worldwide struggle for liberation of all individuals in our churches and communities. This is a global United Methodist Women initiative.
- Conference – The organization of United Methodist Women within the bounds of an annual conference of the United Methodist Church. We are part of the Western North Carolina Conference.
- Deaconess and Home Missioner – Lay people who have responded to the call of God in their lives and have been commissioned by The United Methodist Church in a lifetime relationship to full-time ministries of love, justice and service.
- District Unit – A group formed by women from different churches who choose to meet in locations other than a local church, such as a college or university campus, in a retirement community or local business area.
- District Member – A woman who does not have a local or district organization to which she can belong. Upon approval by the district executive committee, she becomes a district member. Through the district, she learns about the events and resources of United Methodist Women and makes her Pledge to Mission.
- Executive Committee – The executive committee works as a mission team and is the administrative body of the United Methodist Women on a local, district and conference levels. It facilitates program planning, financial functions and membership development.

➤ Five Channels of Giving – There are five main ways to financially support the work of United Methodist Women. (Give a minimum of $5 in each of these channels and your unit will have given in all Five Channels of Giving. Individuals may also give in all five channels.)

1. Pledge to Mission: What we feel led to give from our hearts to make a difference in the lives of women, children and youth each year. This is not considered "dues." There is no set amount and it is hoped that each year our members will be able to increase their pledge to mission. All of our dollars add up to make mission possible!
2. World Thank Offering: This offering is an opportunity for us to respond to God's abundance and grace with spontaneous gifts of gratitude. These offerings are usually collected during a special service or program.
3. Special Mission Recognition: By giving to this channel, a local unit or an individual is able to honor someone. The gift amounts for pins range from $40 to $2,000. However, if a unit does not have $40 in their budget, it may donate $5 to this channel and it will have given in this channel of mission giving. (There will not be a pin, but the money will go to mission.) Anyone can be recognized in this way: woman, man, member, non-member, United Methodist or other denomination.
4. Gift to Mission: Make a gift of $5 or more in honor of a member, friend, family member or anyone. The following cards are available to send to the person you are honoring: Thank-You, A New Baby, In the Service of Christ, A Special Day, Thinking of You, Peace, Happy Birthday, Congratulations and assortment of Christmas cards. These cards can be purchased from local treasurers or at district and conference events.
5. Gift in Memory: Give a gift in memory of a member, friend, family member or anyone. You may get these cards from local treasurers and at district and conference events for free. Then turn in a minimum gift of $5 for each card when you send one to the family of the deceased. You can use these not only when someone dies, but to remember someone on Mother's Day, Father's Day, etc.

- International Ministries – In 2013 Mission Giving funds supported 121 programs carried out by 107 organizations in more than 110 countries.
- Justice Today – Our conference initiative to promote study and implementation of the Charter for Racial Justice.
- Leadership Development – Elected officers of local units, districts and conferences of United Methodist Women are expected to participate each year in continuing training for their particular responsibilities. These events are sponsored by the districts and conferences.
- LUV Visit – LUV stands for Local Unit Visitation. (Some districts call these Nurturing Partner Visits.) This is an opportunity for district and conference officers to come to local units and share information and hear from the local units. No unit is too small for a visit! Officers welcome the chance to do a program or just enjoy fellowship.
- Mission Giving – Pledges are given by members to support the mission program of United Methodist Women. With "no strings attached," these funds are available for use in any part of the mission program of United Methodist Women. (See Five Channels of Giving)
- Mission Studies – United Methodist Women equips members for reflection and informed action through educational opportunities and resources. Each year, United Methodist Women members prepare through mission studies on geographical, topical and spiritual topics. These are offered on a district level as well as in local units.

- Mission Today – The purpose of Mission Today is to energize United Methodist Women to be more involved in mission through prayer, study and action. It also seeks to increase contacts between units and mission personnel and mission projects so the United Methodist Women understand where their money goes. It encourages the use of mission resources through United Methodist Women and expands concepts of mission, including social justice as mission. There is a list of options that units can complete to become a Mission Today unit.
- Mission u – A mission education initiative held annually (July in the Western North Carolina Conference) using the mission studies produced by the United Methodist Women National Office.
- National Mission Institutions – These institutions provide much needed services to their communities, and many have historical relationships with United Methodist Women. Nearly 100 institutions are located across the United States, including Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. They are community centers, schools, colleges, health care facilities and women's residents offering a variety of services. United Methodist Women locally and through their gifts to mission support National Mission Institutions.
- Nurturing Partner – A district officer that is teamed up with a local unit with the intention of forming a relationship. This partnership makes communication easier and allows for flow of information to and from the local unit.
- Prayer Calendar – The Prayer Calendar features illustrations created by children who work with projects that are supported by United Methodist Women's Mission Giving. It also includes personal reflections from missionaries, deaconesses and other mission personnel. Missionaries, deaconesses, other missional personnel and staff members are listed on their birthdays so they may be lifted in prayer. Also included daily are names of International and National Mission Institutions.
- Program Book – This features a collection of programs for use in local units and circles that inspire peace, encourage us to care for the environment, teach about reconciliation, restorative justice, current events etc. Included is the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial program and Pledge Service.
- Reading Program – A program of the United Methodist Women that encourages members to expand their understanding of and participation in God's mission through the reading and/or study of books that are selected each year. There are five categories of books. More information is available from your Secretary of Program Resources on a local, district or conference level.
- response Magazine – The official magazine of United Methodist Women produced eleven times a year. It is the voice of women in mission and is intended for every member of the organization. See the conference website for subscription information (www.wnccumw.org).
- Scholarships – The Scholarship Program is funded by the General Scholarship Fund and seven endowed scholarships. Scholarships assist members of the United Methodist Church who live in the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference obtaining an undergraduate degree. Most scholarships require that the recipient pursue an academic course leading to a church-related vocation such as Christian Educator. Recipients must attend one of the five United Methodist-related colleges or universities located in the Western North Carolina Conference.
- Ubuntu Journeys – Ubuntu is an African word and proverb meaning, "I am human because you are human." Ubuntu Journeys are short-term mission service opportunities for women.
 - In the Western North Carolina Conference we have an Ubuntu Day of service. We serve at the five National Mission Institutions located in our conference: Bennett College, Bethlehem Center Charlotte, Bethlehem Center Winston-Salem, Brooks-Howell Home and Pfeiffer University.
