Lake Junaluska is the perfect setting for the Spiritual Growth Retreat. It is a time of reflection and renewal as God speaks to you in special ways. You will be blessed June 12-13th when you and your friends attend this year’s retreat. Men are welcome!

Rev. Toni Ruth Smith, co-pastor of Harrisburg UMC, will present three inspiring sessions on the theme Love as God Loves. Music will be provided by Rev. Mark Barden and Catherine Ritch. After the Friday evening session, The Junaluska Singers will perform. During the second session on Saturday morning, you will have the opportunity to share your financial gift in the Love Offering which goes to Mission Giving.

The first session begins with gathering music at 6:45 PM on Friday, June 12th. The second session will begin with gathering music at 8:45 AM on Saturday, June 13th. The retreat will end around noon on Saturday. You have the opportunity to share as you bring the hands-on mission project of Layette Kits. Information regarding the Layette Kits may be found on our website. Just go to www.wnccumw.org for information. These kits will go to the Mission Response Center and sent worldwide. Be sure to turn in the $1 per kit separately.

The Memorial Chapel will be open Friday afternoon until Saturday noon. Take time to visit the chapel and spend a quiet time of prayer and meditation. Place a prayer request in the basket provided and take a request from the basket to support others in prayer.

Online Registration cost is $15; otherwise, the fee is $25.00 if you pay upon arrival. Everyone needs to come to the Harrell Center Auditorium to check in and receive your program book and other material. Registration will be 1:00-6:30 PM on Friday. Registration and Program Resources areas are in the lower level of Harrell Center on Lakeshore Drive. Look for the yellow UMW Registration signs. Stuart Auditorium is between Harrell Center and The Memorial Chapel. Room reservations may be done on-line or by calling 1-800-222-4930. All information is available at www.wnccumw.org. The new check-in time for Lake Junaluska housing is 4:00 PM. Check in at the Bethea Welcome Center for room reservations and then register for the retreat at the Harrell Center. If you need child care, you can make arrangements by calling Lake Junaluska at 1-828-452-2881.

Be sure to visit the Program Resources area which is right beside registration in Harrell Center. Displays and resources to buy are available. The hours are Friday afternoon 1:00—6:30 PM and Saturday 7:30—8:30 AM. Program Resources is closed during worship.

The grounds of the Lake Junaluska Assembly are lovely. There are many things to enjoy in the area. The walk around the lake is not quite three miles. Benches are scattered around the lake. Stop and have a quiet time. It may rain or be cool. Dress comfortably. When United Methodist Women get together, you can expect blessings in the fellowship and worship. See you in June! Spring is in the air and trees are beginning to turn green and flowers are blooming. It is always good to see things come alive this time of year. We have lots of great things planned for United Methodist Women.

Your Executive Committee has been hard at work planning our events for 2015. Hope you have registered for the Spiritual Growth Retreat in June. If you have not registered you need to do so. Be sure to read Sandy Hieronymus’ article with the details.

District Secretaries your work is so very important. You have the permanent record for everything that is going on in your district. When you are writing your minutes remember someone may need to refer to them at any time in the future. Always have your minutes with you at team meeting in case something comes up that needs to be made clear. If you need my help in any way please contact me.

Invite God into every place you go today—the shop, factory, business, or school. Ask Him to be a part of every encounter and relationship. He has promised to "come in" to every door that is opened to Him!

Also, my email has changed. The new email is elizabethlookabill@gmail.com.

The 2014 giving report from the National Office indicates that Western North Carolina United Methodist Women for the 14th consecutive year led the nation in…

Special Mission Recognitions
- Gift in Memory
- World Thank Offerings
- Total Mission Giving (the five channels)
- Total Giving
- Total Designated Giving

The year-end audit confirms our Annual Total Giving of $830,118.02 to the National Office. This is cause to celebrate because you are making mission possible!

As we proceed into 2015, remember our Financial Goal, “To Increase the percentage of local units giving in all Five Channels of Mission Giving”. Making a difference is as easy as giving $5.00 in each channel. Even though we were #1 in giving for 2014, we did not make our Conference Pledge to Mission. We are taking a leap of faith and increasing our 2015 Pledge by $100 to $821,100. We have a lot of work to do but we are up to the challenge and faithful in our desire to serve women, children, and youth around the world.

We still need to work on helping local units know where to send their remittances. Our first quarter giving was down by $5,000, a big improvement from 2014 but this still presents us with a challenge as we begin 2015. If you need information about where to send your remittance, please let me know. I am happy to help you.

During Spiritual Growth Retreat visit the Program Resource area to see and purchase an assortment of Gift to Mission cards and pick up some Gift in Memory cards. Your local unit will receive credit for your card purchases. “Congratulations” cards are good for May/June high school & college graduations, our “In Service to Christ” card would be an excellent selection for your in-coming or out-going minister in June/July, our missionaries appreciate receiving cards throughout the year, and how about a “Thank You” to the church secretary/administrative assistant/janitor. You could also send “Thinking of You” for Mother’s and Father’s Day…and don’t forget the “Baby” card! Remember these wonderful cards may also be sent to friends who are not Methodist!

I am already receiving Conference Love Offerings in the mail. You may make a donation on-line if that works best for you, www.wnccumw.org. This year the Love Offering theme will be “In honor of our Members’ Faithful Commitment to Mission Giving.” Make your checks to WNCC UMW Treasurer and mail to me at PO Box 49, Linville Falls, NC 28647.

Western North Carolina United Methodist Women have a long history of generosity in Mission Giving supporting the wonderful work of serving our sisters and children around the world. See you at Spiritual Growth Retreat!

Martha Phillips
I want to encourage ALL our local units to invite a district or conference officer to your unit. Your officers would like to visit all our local units and get to know each of you. We would be glad to share a program or just a time of fellowship with you. Communication to and from the local units are vital to our organization. Check your district newsletter for a list of district officers or contact your District President or Membership Nurture and Outreach Coordinator.

Each one of us is an important part of our local unit, district and conference. On page ### in this newsletter is a flyer that will give some ideas about how EVERYONE can do something! Whether you are a teen, a working mom, retired, home bound or one of our longtime members, this insert will give you some ideas of ways YOU can make a difference and help live out our PURPOSE. Check it out!

We all can do something…

As United Methodist Women, we make mission possible for women, children and youth.

We live out our purpose: The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

Some ways YOU can make a difference:

- Send birthday cards to members of your local unit and people listed in the Prayer Calendar
- Send Gift to Mission cards (these could be supplied by your local unit) such as New Baby, Thinking of You, etc.”
- Pray… for United Methodist Women everywhere, our staff, mission personnel, and mission focuses lifted up in the Prayer Calendar
- Make phone calls to remind members of upcoming events (contact a district or conference officer for details)
- Sign up for United Methodist Women Action Alerts and respond to them
- Read response magazine
- Participate in the Reading Program (large print books available)
- Write a book report for your local unit about a book you read from the Reading Program

PROGRAM RESOURCES

“Love as God Loves” is the theme of our 2015 Spiritual Growth Retreat, and it promises to be an exciting, uplifting, and spiritually fulfilling event. An awesome group has been lined up to feed our spirits with Rev. Toni Ruth Smith as leader, Catherine Ritch as musician, and Rev. Mark Barden as music leader.

In addition to inspiration from our leaders, Program Resources will have copies of 2015 books from all five categories of the Reading Program with an emphasis on books in the area of spiritual growth to stimulate our personal development. Praying to Change Your Life is a study on productive prayer. It is a “how-to guide that glorifies God, transforms lives, and increases the power of your prayers.”

We will have copies of our 2015 mission study books, and once again, we will have some of the books from previous years. Please note that the 2011 – 2014 books will be available at a reduced price. Program Resources will be open from 1 – 6:30 pm on Friday and 7:30 – 8:30 am on Saturday, so come prepared to take home some of our outstanding books!

Blessings to all of you,

Ann Aldridge
Mission Today brings our PURPOSE alive. We as Mission Coordinators for Education & Interpretation must communicate this to our local units. Every unit should be well on its way to becoming a Mission Today Unit for this year.

Our goal is to increase the percentage of Mission Today units for 2015. To help us accomplish this goal, we have looked at the list of Criteria and made a few revisions. As always, every unit must complete #1 of the criteria: “The Unit will make and meet its Pledge to Mission.” Please, let your district treasurer know what your pledge is, then at the end of the year meet or exceed that pledge. You will have fulfilled #1 criteria are then eligible to be a Mission Today unit. A revision of the criteria have been changed to be included in the asterisk (*) options, expressly #10. “The unit will contribute to all Five Channels of Mission Giving.” We encourage your unit to look at criteria #22, making certain that this option is listed on your report.

The Western North Carolina Conference continues to answer the mission call. We work hard with Mission Response Center and UM COR to make a difference on behalf of women, children and youth around the world. We encourage each of you to make your reservations for the Spiritual Growth Retreat, June 12-13. When at least two members from your unit attend, requirement for criteria #18 (one member for units with less than 15 members) is met. Our hands-on-project is Birthing Kits, plus any other kits. Please, we stress this, “Do not place money in the kits!” It must be removed from them. Hands-on Mission opportunities are great ways to be in mission.

Your district and conference officers love to visit the local units. Make that call for one of us to visit and you will fulfill criteria #20 for mission today unit. We cannot stress the importance of team when we answer the call as Jesus' arms and feet to respond to the needs of women, children and youth throughout the world. April issue of Response Magazine focuses on the 2015-2016 geographic theme that will be studied in Mission u events in every conference: Latin America - People and Faith, lets share with others the importance of subscribing to response as it opens ways for us to become informed about people all over the world and we meet criteria #5 for Mission Today unit. Reading makes our work as UMW members more worthwhile and fulfilling.

We look forward to continuing working with each of you in becoming a Mission Today unit.

As we anticipate this year’s Spiritual Growth Retreat’s challenge to “Love as God Loves,” countless social justice issues come to mind . . . human trafficking, global migration, gender/racial/economic justice. Caring and advocating for the “least of these” can be overwhelming!

One of the strengths of United Methodist Women is our interconnectedness – unit to unit, district to district, conference to conference. As we tackle these seemingly overwhelming issues, we have many opportunities to pray together, study together, and act together, learning to speak out for those whose voices are not being heard.

UMWomen, Inc., has partnered with National Justice For Our Neighbors (NJFON), a UM immigration ministry, through a substantial grant for resources to provide adequate assistance to many vulnerable immigrants. This much-needed legal assistance gives a fighting chance to low-income immigrants hoping to escape deportation back to violent nations and to legalize their status in the US. Together we are putting faith, hope, and love into action through this partnership.

WNCC UMMen and UMWomen recently applied to pilot a domestic violence initiative sponsored by the National UMW Office. In lieu of becoming a pilot conference, we have been invited to participate in the “train the trainer” sessions at this spring’s Leadership Development Days (LDD). As we develop loving, safe spaces across our conference for those who have suffered domestic violence, we will be putting faith, hope, and love into action.

Within your units, as you assemble mission kits, contribute your pledges, and share response moments and prayer calendar meditations, you trust God to use your efforts to strengthen awareness and to allow you to put faith, hope, and love into action. Never forget how much everyone’s efforts matter when we work together for women, children, and youth around the world.

“Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.” – Helen Keller

Did You Know? Conference & District officers are available for programs in your local unit or just for a visit. Either type of visit qualify for Mission Today #20!

United Methodist Women
Celebrating 150 Years
1869-2019

Webster defines legacy as “something handed down to another.” What a wonderful thing to do. While it is not something that we think or talk about all the time, it is an issue that should be given some thought. What will you leave behind? The question is not whether you will leave a legacy but what that legacy will be. Usually when people pass away there is a huge focus on the things they owned… who gets this trinket or who gets that knick-knack. The idea of handing down values or ideas or mission is a totally new way to look at it.

I would like to inject a connection with giving, mission, and United Methodist Women. If we love this organization like we so eloquently display, let’s preserve it for years to come. There is magic in the connection. We are bridging generations of United Methodist Women. The Legacy Fund is a forward thinking permanent endowment with income dedicated to strengthening our organization. It does not have to be complicated. The Legacy Fund is a way to celebrate, honor, memorialize, educate, challenge, invest, secure and so much more!

† Give a donation to honor your UMW shero!
† Host a birthday party for the most senior lady in your unit – no gifts, collect funds and donate in her honor to the Legacy Fund
† New birth, make a special contribution to the Legacy Fund to celebrate
† Honor a favorite UMW sister with the $18.69 contribution
† Host a Legacy Sunday – learn more about giving - everyone donates toward fund
† Host Legacy Fund Fun – a night or evening of family fun activities – donations go toward the Legacy Fund

Our conference is off to a great start. The Executive Committee and others have already made contributions. While this is over and above our pledge and beyond our other UMW financial obligations, giving to The Legacy Fund is so doable.

If we love United Methodist Women like we say we do, we should secure its future. What will your legacy be, a dazzling crystal vase, a stunning mink stole or monies to make mission possible in the life of children, women and youth around the world?

Thanks for allowing me to serve as your conference president. I am just an email, telephone call or note away. I would love to hear from you.

Blessings,

Tonya Lanier

Eight UMW participants from across WNCC spent three days in seminar sessions at the General Board of Church & Society (GBCS) in Washington, DC. Our final challenge was to share what we had learned and our concerns about the need for immigration reform with North Carolina Senator Thom Tillis and his legislative assistant.
