The Reverend Amy Coles

Rev. Amy Coles serves as the Assistant to the Bishop in the Western North Carolina Conference. A graduate of the University of North Carolina – Greensboro in Child Development and Family Relations and Duke Divinity School, she has pastored churches in Trinity, High Point, and Shoals, North Carolina. Prior to this current position, she served as a district superintendent for six years. Amy is an active participant with the denominational Connectional Table, the Board of Rural Faith Development CDC and the Thriving Rural Communities Initiative at Duke. She is the guardian of her 23-year-old nephew, Sergeant Brandon Estrada who is currently stationed with US Army in Germany, and she also cares for her 20-year-old niece, Mae. They both might describe her as “the cool aunt.” She, on the other hand, describes “aunt-hood” as an adventure in patience and prayer.
