

July 2021

From Your President:

WOW! I just finished watching the Conference Spiritual Growth Retreat with wonderful music and an inspiring message. The workshops and jazzercise provided good breaks. I confess my knowledge of Juneteenth was pretty limited but this workshop helped me to increase my knowledge. Added to the reading I am doing I have really increased my understanding of the treatment and history of African Americans and Indigenous people. The workshop on teas was fun, informative and relaxing. I encourage you to go to the conference site wncumw.org and be renewed.

My goal is to take my faith, hope and love and turn them into action in my community. I believe United Methodist Women are being called once again to lead as we have always done. Speak out for those who have no voice and stand up for what we know is right. I'm sure you have continued in mission even during the pandemic. As we start to be more active in our communities, I hope you will stretch yourself- do something new or learn about something new. You can join a book study that you are presenting or look around for one conducted by another district. Zoom makes this possible. Start a book study and invite young women in your church. Perhaps mix the study with a project. As we start to reopen, it is a good opportunity to decide how our units are going to proceed. Perhaps some change is in order.

Next is our virtual conference Mission u July 15th – July 18th for the spiritual growth study and July 19th – Aug 1st at different times for different classes for the social action study. The books are Bearing Witness in the Kin-dom: Living into the Church's Moral Witness through Radical Discipleship with Rev. Amy Coles leading this spiritual study. The study based on the book Pushout: The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools will be led by different facilitators. Both of these books are on our reading program list and count as two books. They would both make excellent book studies for your unit.

Our annual district meeting will also be virtual on August 28th at 2 pm. We have new officers to elect and the program will be on Just Energy For All which is the second issue United Methodist Women is focusing on during this quadrennium. We have to go beyond recycling. Join us and learn something new about how you can help. The other issue is the school to prison pipeline.

Put the Conference Annual Celebration on your calendar for September 11-12, 2021. The conference team has worked really hard to make these events wonderful opportunities to join with sister UMW members and to be enriched. Hopefully, we can all be together soon in person. Some are meeting in person now and I believe you can do this safely though carefully. We need each other so reach out however you can and connect with your sisters.

Thanks for all that you are doing and do not despair. God is leading us in the direction He wants us to go.

To His Glory,

Debbie Ray, (acting) SM District President (wsray@charter.net)

PURPOSE OF UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The organized unit of UNITED METHODIST WOMEN shall be a community of women whose purpose is to KNOW GOD and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ, to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

MISSION EDUCATION & INTERPRETATION:

Our Mission Response Center, Terrell, NC has indicated that they have a good supply of UMCOR Kits at this time and the greater need is for Project Agape. Armenians served by Project Agape have been involved in war with Azerbaijan who is trying to take the land and has forced relocation of the Project offices and warehouses while forcing Armenians from their homes. The NC Conference and WNC Conference are the only Conferences that partner with Project Agape. Our District UMW is also supporting Alliance Center for Education in Charlotte (formerly Bethlehem Center) and Brooks-Home in Asheville. Perhaps one of these missions will really speak to your heart, since we are not collecting UMCOR Kits and this is a way we can help.

Brooks-Howell Home can use Checks and/or Gift Cards. Gift Cards can be mailed to Brooks-Howell, Deaconess Tracey Owens, Activities Director, 266 Merrimon Avenue, Asheville, NC 28801

Alliance Center For Education needs: Puzzles (25-100 Pieces), Glitter Pens, Glitter Glue, Sidewalk Chalk, Painting Kits, Disinfectant Wipes, First Aid Kits, Small Unfinished Wooden Jewelry Boxes & Frames ($1 at Dollar Tree) and Checks (Pack items in boxes and label contents on the outside of the box). Checks should be payable to the District UMW Treasurer.

PROJECT AGAPE: School Supplies: #2 Pencils, Colored Pencils, Hand-held Pencil Sharpeners, Erasers, School Scissors. Remove packaging from all items. Pack School Supplies in plastic shoe boxes and place them in larger boxes.

Also needed for Project Agape:

New Blankets - any size

New Children's winter clothing - sizes 2-14, especially boy's clothing

New Children's Shoes - all sizes: Toddler 3-10, Little Kids 10.5, 13.5 & 1-3; Big Kids 3.5-7.

Donors are asked to pack blankets and clothing in separate boxes and label the boxes on the outside. Shoes can be left in their original box if available; if not, pack new shoes in boxes.

If you are sending a Check to Brooks-Howell, Alliance Center, or Project Agape, please make the check to the UMW, put the name of the project on the Memo Line and mail to Judy Bromley, Smoky Mountain District Treasurer, 336 Maple Leaf Lane, Clyde, NC 28721.

Units are to report to Beverly Bard or Sonya Kotila, ME&I Coordinators. the estimated value (rounded to nearest dollar) of items donated and also the total amount of checks or Gift Cards donated.

Supplies are to be delivered to Beverly Bard at 1892 Plott Creek Road, Waynesville, NC and for the Western part of Smoky Mountain District to Murphy 1st UMC, by September 15, 2021. Please contact Esther Manchester, 828-226-7481 if you are bringing supplies to the church.

Any help provided will be greatly appreciated. Thanks for staying strong and supporting the mission work of the UMW.

If you have any questions concerning this, do not hesitate to call me - Beverly Bard, 828-646-7558.

OUR SPIRITUAL GROWTH ARENA

I hope this newsletter finds everyone well, and more comfortable about getting out among people again. Even though the last months have not always been easy, I recognize that I have been blessed in many ways, and this time has presented many opportunities to learn and reflect. I recognize that as life gets busy again, that I need to evaluate my priorities. Lisa Beth White, our speaker for the Conference Spiritual Growth Retreat, reminded us that sometimes our normal needs to be interrupted.

I hope that many of you were able to participate in the Conference Spiritual Growth weekend. It wasn't the same as being at Lake Junaluska, but it gave us little tastes of the lake, and it was very well done. We have certainly learned a lot about using media. If you were unable to participate, or if like me, you missed some workshops, you can view videos of worship sessions and workshops on the Conference UMW YouTube Channel. If you created a WHOVA account, you can view them there. You might find that some of the workshops could be used as circle or unit programs. You will find those videos at:

United Methodist Women - Western North Carolina Conference - YouTube

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCYo0CvnM1UBMe4nYNO6Gm6g/videos>

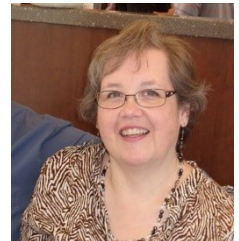

Amy Coles, who was once our District Superintendent, will be leading the Spiritual Growth Study for this year's Mission U. Since this will also be a virtual event, you won't have to travel all the way to Misenheimer (Pfeiffer University). I am looking forward to hearing Amy speak again, as she gave the message for one of our district's Day Apart. You will find information about Mission U and both studies on the WNCC UMW website at:

A NOTE FROM OUR TREASURER:

As I mentioned in the last newsletter, we are so blessed to be a part of this group of women, with a vision of "turning faith, hope and love into action on behalf of women, children, and youth around the world."

Even during these very challenging times, United Methodist women continue to do so much for the nation and the world. In the Smoky Mountain District, we have started this year off strong, even though we are still not meeting together physically. We just need to maintain our support because the work continues, no matter what else is happening in our communities, etc. Thank you again for helping to make this a great organization!

MEMBERSHIP, NURTURE AND OUTREACH

As we affirm the purpose of our organization on a regular basis, we remind ourselves that an important part of our purpose is to "expand our concept of mission through the participation in the global ministries of the church." There is no better way, I believe, to do this than to stay informed and the best way we have of doing that is to read, read, read. Read response magazine and read the recommended books on the UMW Reading List for a greater understanding of the issues our world is facing. One such book is entitled "Hospitable Planet: Faith, Action, and Climate Change." The author is Stephen A. Jurovics. Mr. Jurovics combines his knowledge as an Engineer along with his love for the scriptures (especially those Jesus studied, referred to as the law in Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy) to address the "ecological crises" we are in today.

The book is presented in three different parts with the first part establishing God's creation and what he expects from humankind in return for his good gift. About 45 percent of the book is used to illustrate what God intended when he gave humankind dominion over the earth. Part 2 deals with taking action at the national level and Part 3 challenges us to take action, individually and in our local communities.

True. Climate change has become a political issue; but long before it became a political issue, it was an issue for us as human beings in our covenantal relationship with our God. We forgot to stay in relationship with God. We forgot to honor that sabbath day that was set aside for us to rest our bodies and our souls. In our quest for food, we became hardened in our treatment of animals and we have only to drive past the slaughtering houses in the midwest to witness the ill treatment of beef cattle or pass a huge truck on the highway loaded with chickens packed in small spaces unable to breathe, resulting in many dying before reaching their destination, as a result. The list continues. Please read this book. It will change your life!

Mr. Jurovics ends his book with the following statement for us to ponder, "Our descendants would never forgive our choosing expediency over preserving a hospitable planet. When people driven more by faith than science join forces with those driven more by science than faith, their union will form the Environmental Rights Movement that will stabilize the earth's climate and preserve God's creation."

As your Legacy Team Energizer I was inspired by these words from our International president 'Anise 'Isama'u in the 2021 July/August edition of Response magazine.

“Our prophetic foremothers laid for us a foundation for mission. Some of that legacy was financial. Some of it was spiritual. And some of it was organizational. They’ve left a legacy in us. We’re weaving our own journey and our own response to the call of God into their story. We’re now building a legacy for daughters ... for nieces, granddaughters, grand nieces, goddaughters and women we’ll never meet.

Will we do what we are called to do today?

It’s about connection: To God, to one another, to the needs of women, children and youth in the world, to our Purpose, to our past. To our future. It’s a great time to be a part of United Methodist Women!

Our foremothers dreamed it so that we could achieve it. It’s now our time to dream bigger dreams and continue the legacy. The dreams we dream today lay the foundation for the women coming after us. If we dream it, surely they will achieve it.”

Read Anise’s full message in this month’s Response. I feel this as encouragement to continue supporting our Legacy Fund until we have reached our goal.
