HAPPY NEW YEAR YADKIN VALLEY UMW

From Rhita Newcomb, District President

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Romans 15:13

Hope Emerges!

In our January/February 2022 response magazine, Rev. Jasmine Smothers states when it is time for change hope emerges. Hope emerges because God is with us. He is with us when we go through changes. Sometimes change can bring on feelings of fear, worry and sadness because things will no longer be the way they were. United Methodist Women have changed with the world and with the church over the last 152 years, we have been called many different names in many different denominations of Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren, but our mission is still the same to help women, children, and youth around the world. United Methodist Women is taking on a new look with new and innovated programs and resources. We are taking on a new look that will better nurture our members and welcome many more women into our movement. You are an important part of this organization, together let us embrace change and let hope emerge. We will be learning more about these changes during Assembly 2022, Turn It Up! May 20 – 22.

Please remember that I and your Nurturing Partner are available to you through an email or phone call if you have any questions. You will find your Nurturing Partner listed in this newsletter.

I look forward to meeting you and serving with you during these exciting new changes in 2022!

Blessings.

From Debra Lawson, District Vice-President

Happy New Year! Hope everyone had a blessed Christmas. A new year is here again. This year will have its challenges. But I know that good things will be accomplished by our United Methodist Women. We are women of hope, love, prayers, and faith. These are the best ingredients for success. As we enter this new year may we enter anticipating great things. I look forward to serving and meeting you hopefully this year. Please be safe.

From Polly Caudle, District Membership Nurture and Outreach

I am sitting in my sunroom and looking at the snow coming down and how blessed we are to have shelter from the cold and snow, food that we can fix to nourish our bodies and I am also thinking what can we do to help those that are not as blessed as we are. We can share our love with a phone call, a card to let them know that they were missed and that we are thinking of them or maybe a hot bowl of soup to warm up our friends.

Stay connected to your LUV partners.

Our third annual Wear a Hat, Bring a Hat Tea is scheduled for June 4, 2022 at 11:00 am at Pine Grove UMC - Winston Salem. We will have more on that later. I will be traveling to the Assembly virtually in Orlando and hope to have new programs to share. We will also be able to work on Days for Girls projects for Ubuntu Events

Exciting changes are on the horizon that will energize women to turn love into action for children, and youth for another 150 years.

From Camille French, District Social Action Chair

Welcome to a new year in social action! We want to highlight two events that are important to the work that United Methodist Women are doing both globally and locally.

February 4 is Transit Equity Day – a national day of action that commemorates the birthday of Rosa Parks by declaring that public transit is a civil right. Rosa Parks chose the tactic of refusing to give up her seat on the bus to demand an end to segregation in the Montgomery, Alabama, transit system. Transit Equity Day honors this act of resistance by advocating for the rights of all people to quality public transportation powered by clean or renewable energy. Visit the United Methodist Women’s website at: <https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/news/join-us-for-transit-equity-day-february-4> To find the tools to stand up for transit equity. You may also join the Transit Equity Day livestream event on Feb. 4 from 12-2 p.m. ET on the Labor Network for Sustainability YouTube page. Visit the main website for more information on transit equity and how it affects our communities.

Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem is hosting Navigating Jim Crow: Green Book and Oasis Spaces in North Carolina during the month of February. “The Negro Motorist Green Book,” published between 1936 and 1966, was both a travel guide and a tool of resistance designed to confront the realities of racial discrimination in the United States and beyond. The book listed over 300 North Carolina businesses—from restaurants and hotels, to tourist homes, nightclubs and beauty salons—in the three decades that it was published. The exhibit will be on display for two additional dates and times: Sunday, February 6 and Sunday, February 20. On both dates the exhibit will be open from 1 pm – 4 pm. Please visit the following website for more details. <https://www.mttaborumc.org/green-book>.

United Methodist Women continue to lead the charge on bringing important social action issues to the forefront. To see all that we are doing and how we continue to bring impactful change to the world, visit our website at www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/racialjustice. Encourage your unit to participate in these two events and to determine how to address these and other issues as we journey forward together as sisters in Christ.

From Barbara Crotts, District Nominations Chair

Good day to all my UMW friends.

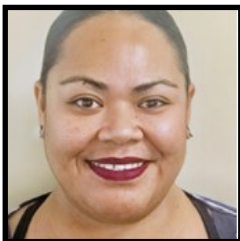

I am Barbara Crotts, and the chair of nominations for this year. Just as a bit of information about me: I served as Program Resources person for 4 years, then later served as Spiritual Growth Co-ordinator for 4 years. Prior to that, I was a Sub-district member when we were the Lexington District. I have enjoyed being a part of United Methodist Women, and hope that all of you feel the same way.

As chair of nominations, I am asking all of the members of UMW to consider leadership roles in your local circles. Leadership is vital to the work and continuation of United Methodist Women. We are all aware of the fact church attendance is declining due to this pandemic, and with that decline we are experiencing a decline in our UMW numbers as well. We must continue to work as women committed to the wellbeing of women, children and youth in our own communities and around the world. We must find a way to involve more women in the mission work that was started more than 150 years ago. We must do whatever we can to get more of our younger women involved in the work. We must educate them as to the history of how we started, and how much good this great sisterhood does in so many ways.

With all that being said....I must also say that there are women in our churches and circles that are needed in leadership roles on the district level. There is such a great fellowship among women who step into roles of leadership.....and you are never alone in a role, everyone helps and supports each other. So, I am asking thisconsider taking on the challenge of stepping out on faith and think about how you might come to accept a role in the direction of the future of United Methodist Women in the coming years.

To quote from Harriet Jane Olson in the Jan/Feb. issue of Response Magazine:

"Now it is our chance- yours and mine- to act like leaders, to assess what's happening, take action. Listen with empathy and curiosity. Talk about our vision. Enlist others. It's only by each of us doing this together , that we will be able to move toward the vision of where God is calling us."

From Jamie Smith, District Treasurer

Greetings UMW Sisters!

A NEW YEAR of hope for us being able to meet in person!

As I began my seventh year as our district treasurer, I looked at the records from my first year and compared them to 2021. I know the pandemic has not been kind to our churches or our UMW units. Each year I have been in this position I have heard from units whose numbers have been declining, and sometimes the few remaining members feel a need to disband.

I recently read a “God-wink” story (by Squire Rushnell and Louise DuArt) of a cancer patient who was faced with a new course of treatment options. Being overwhelmed she was thinking of discontinuing her treatment. While in a fast-food drive thru, contemplating her decision, she happened to read the license plate of the car ahead of her, “DON’T QUIT”. She believed this to be God’s message to her to continue treatment! I believe “DON’T QUIT” should be this years’ motto for our UMW units! God’s word has told us “Where two or three are gathered, there He would be also”.

In our 2022 Daily Prayer Guide January 10 “Reflection”, Andrew Lee (Global Missionary in Cambodia) says: “Sometimes, when we’re focused on a project, we become more concerned with numbers. What matters is not how many participate in a program, but that the ones whom God’s eyes are on come and join us.”

When you feel like giving up, look up and pray that God will lead us to the ones who need us! And that we can answer his call! May we continue to do what God called the women before us, and what he continues to call us to do...work for the least of these, the women, children and youth worldwide. Persevere! I know God is with us, He is in control--DONT QUIT. I look forward to working with all of you another year!

From Deborah Brooks, District Communications

Thank you to all who submitted your officer information with your annual reports. Though most information will come to the unit presidents, you never know when information may need to be sent to specific positions.

If you haven't sent in your officer information, or need to make changes, please do so asap.

Also take advantage of digital communications, social media etc. Yes, we have a love / hate relationship at times but they do have many positive uses such as getting information faster than waiting for the mail.

Heads up! Big changes coming from our National Office. Be on the watch for announcements later this year..

From Rhita Newcomb, District Legacy Fund

Greetings Sisters in Christ,

As we prepare to celebrate another birthday on March 23, let's remember our faithful foremothers and honor them through our Legacy Fund. Our national president stated in the July/August 2021 response magazine "Our foremothers dreamed it so that we could achieve it. It's now our time to dream bigger dreams and continue the legacy. The dreams we dream today lay the foundation for the women coming after us. If we dream it, surely they will achieve it." Together let's make that dream come true!!

One of the ways you can help to build onto our foundation that our foremothers started is to become a Legacy Builder. A Legacy Builder makes a monthly gift of $18.69 or more to The Legacy Fund Endowment Campaign. For more information visit www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/donate/legacybuilder.

Ways to Give to the Legacy Fund

- Make a gift to the Legacy Fund through your local unit United Methodist Women treasurer.
- Use our Western North Carolina Legacy Fund Commitment Form
- Online on the national office website at unitedmethodistwomen.org/legacyfund
- By phone: 800-278-7771 (8 am-6pm EST, M-F)
- Text Legacy150 to 41444
- By check: note "Legacy Fund" in memo and mail to: United Methodist Women, Treasurer's Office 15th Floor, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, NY 10115
- Other methods include gifts of stock, life insurance, bequests, and other forms of planned giving. If you are interested in making a gift like this, contact the national office at 800-278-7771.

From Glenda Beauchamp, District Leadership Development Chair

Happy New Year Ladies,

I hope each of you had a happy holiday season. Any time we have the opportunity to spend quality time with our family or friends can be either very special or a real headache. Always concentrate on the better side and improve from there.

Oftentimes we dread going to yet another meeting. However, when you get there, we find there is something more to learn.

If you attended the virtual Leadership Development Meeting in November, I hope you enjoyed getting acquainted with our slate of officers for 2022. Our special event was a call in visit from Ben Rogers at the Mission Response Center. I also had some videos from Open Arms Community and the Bethlehem Center of Winston Salem. We were unable to get our computer to play the videos, but for those who requested a link, we were able to share the videos with them. We are hopeful to meet in person next year and have a much bigger crowd and a better opportunity to learn new ways to serve others in our church and community. A life lived for others is a life well lived.

United Methodist Women

Faith. Hope. Love in Action

We are women with a PURPOSE!

The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.
