35 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, 36 I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.'

Matthew 25

40 Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.

Matthew 25

A group of eight diverse women of various ages and ethnicities are standing in a line against a brick wall. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The image is dimly lit, with a dark blue or black overlay. The text "I was sick and you looked after me" is centered over the group in a white, bold, sans-serif font.

14 What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them? 15 Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. 16 If one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,” but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? 17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead. 18 But someone will say, “You have faith; I have deeds.” Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds.

James 2
