Using the Faith Talks format, there will be three speakers who will share their experiences concerning racism and how it has impacted their lives.

Moderator: Joanie Strohm, Conference President

Speakers:

Kathy FitzJefferies, member of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Racial Justice Support Team. Kathy will speak about her experiences as a white woman married to a black man.

Brenda Steadman, member of the Conference Committee on Nominations. Brenda will speak about her experiences as a black woman.

Molly Welch, Conference Mission Coordinator for Membership Nurture and Outreach. Molly will speak about her experiences as a white woman.

Joanie, Brenda, and Molly serve on the Conference Justice Today Committee, which includes the Charter for Racial Justice.
