

The Washington Post calls this book a “powerful and devastating” call to free those buried alive by American’s legal system, and an inspiring true story about unwavering belief in humanity – from a gifted young lawyer and important new voice in the movement to transform the system.

Author Brittany K. Barnett is an award-winning attorney & entrepreneur focused on social impact investing. She is dedicated to transforming the criminal justice system and has won freedom for numerous clients serving life sentences for federal drug offenses. She has been named one of America’s Outstanding Young Lawyers by the American Bar Association.

Blue Ridge District Book Club

May 25, 2024

10:00 am on zoom

Our leader for the session will be Beverly Hill Miller, a member of Black Mountain UMC. Beverly is a retired RN and an avid UWF member. She spent many of her nursing years working with persons with substance abuse issues through the public health department, public mental health and later owning and running two clinics to treat those addicted to substances.